OER Revisions and Ancillary Materials Creation Mini-Grant Application

Affordable Learning Georgia aims to support the sustainability of previous Textbook Transformation Grants implementations through revisions of created open educational resources or the creation of new ancillary materials for existing OER. Individuals or teams who would like to apply for an OER Revisions or Ancillary Materials Creation. Mini-grant participants do not need to be the original creators of the resource(s). While we welcome original authors to revise their original materials, the nature of open licenses allows for the revision and remixing of OER materials by anyone as long as the terms of the license are adhered to.

The final deliverable for this category is the revised or newly-created materials as proposed in the application, which will be hosted through GALILEO Open Learning Materials. All revised or newly-created materials will be made available to the public under a Creative Commons Attribution License (CC-BY), unless the original materials were under a more restrictive license such as the inclusion of SA (Share-Alike) or NC (Non-Commercial).

For the purposes of this grant, we define revision as the major improvement of a resource through updates for accuracy, accessibility, clarity, design, and formatting. We define ancillary materials as any materials created to substantially support the instruction of a course using an existing open educational resource(s).

The proposed course, CSE 3801, was initially developed using the no-cost-learning material as part of the ALG grant round 8. In the past three years, we have been doing regular maintenance on the no cost learning material such as fixing the broken web links. Given the need to update the links and some content, we think it is time to refresh the content of CSE 3801 from a holistic view. The objectives of this project are listed as follows.

1. Update the contents of the learning material in the current learning modules. If possible, the web content will be cached and provided to the students locally.
2. Update PowerPoint slides for each learning module to better guide the student to understand the learning material.
3. Update the quizzes, assignments, and projects to reflect the changes in the learning material.
4. Add a new learning module for the emerging professional practices and ethics.

The updated learning material will be hosted in the same publicly available web site.
